

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: Why Study Economics?	1
Part One: Preliminaries
1 The Economy and Economics	17
2 Capitalism	33
3 Economic History	40
4 The Politics of Economics	52
Part Two: The Basics of Capitalism: Work, Tools, and Profit
5 Work, Production, and Value	65
6 Working with Tools	76
7 Companies, Owners, and Profit	86
8 Workers and Bosses	99
9 Reproduction (for Economists!)	111
10 Closing the Little Circle	119
Part Three: Capitalism as a System
11 Competition	129
12 Investment and Growth	140
13 Employment and Unemployment	151
14 Dividing the Pie	162
15 Capitalism and the Environment	172
Part Four: The Complexity of Capitalism
16 Money and Banking	189
17 Inflation, Central Banks, and Monetary Policy	200
18 Paper Chase: Stock Markets, Financialization, and Pensions	214
19 The Conflicting Personalities of Government	226
20 Spending and Taxing	239
21 Globalization	253
22 Development (and Otherwise)	269
23 Closing the Big Circle	281
24 The Ups and Downs of Capitalism	291

Part Five: Challenging Capitalism

25	Evaluating Capitalism	305
26	Improving Capitalism	315
27	Replacing Capitalism?	324

	Conclusion: A Dozen Big Things to Remember About Economics	335
--	---	-----

	Index	341
--	-------	-----